

Volunteer: Kim

I am a new ESC volunteer at PRONI
Centre for Social Education in Vukovar, Croatia

About Me

I am 19 years, about to turn 20 in November

I grew up in an idyllic village in Northern Germany

I am an empathetic and philosophical person, who loves to socialize

My passion is creativity!
Especially drawing, painting,
reading or listening to music

Also I love to travel, with my family or friends to visit different countries and learn about other cultures!

My Journey

This June I finished my highschool education!

I wanted to take a gap year before university to discover myself and help other people

For that I wanted to go abroad, but I did not know which country to choose

Then I discovered the European Solidarity Corps and applied to many interesting projects!

One day, I found the open call for the PRONI Centre and fell in love!

Why This Project?

The variety of activities
and work objectives

2.

Working with children while also having a creative space for my own project ideas

3.

Duration of 7 months:
I wanted to experience
the country fully, but also have time for internships
at home before uni

The location in Vukovar:
A small town yet so rich in culture and diversity

5.

The people I work with:
My roommate Séphora and my Colleagues in the PRONI Centre

Goals

Improve my teaching and interpersonal skills

2.

Motivate others to volunteer

3.

Connect to new people, build friendships

4.

Gain more independence

5.

Learn about the culture and language

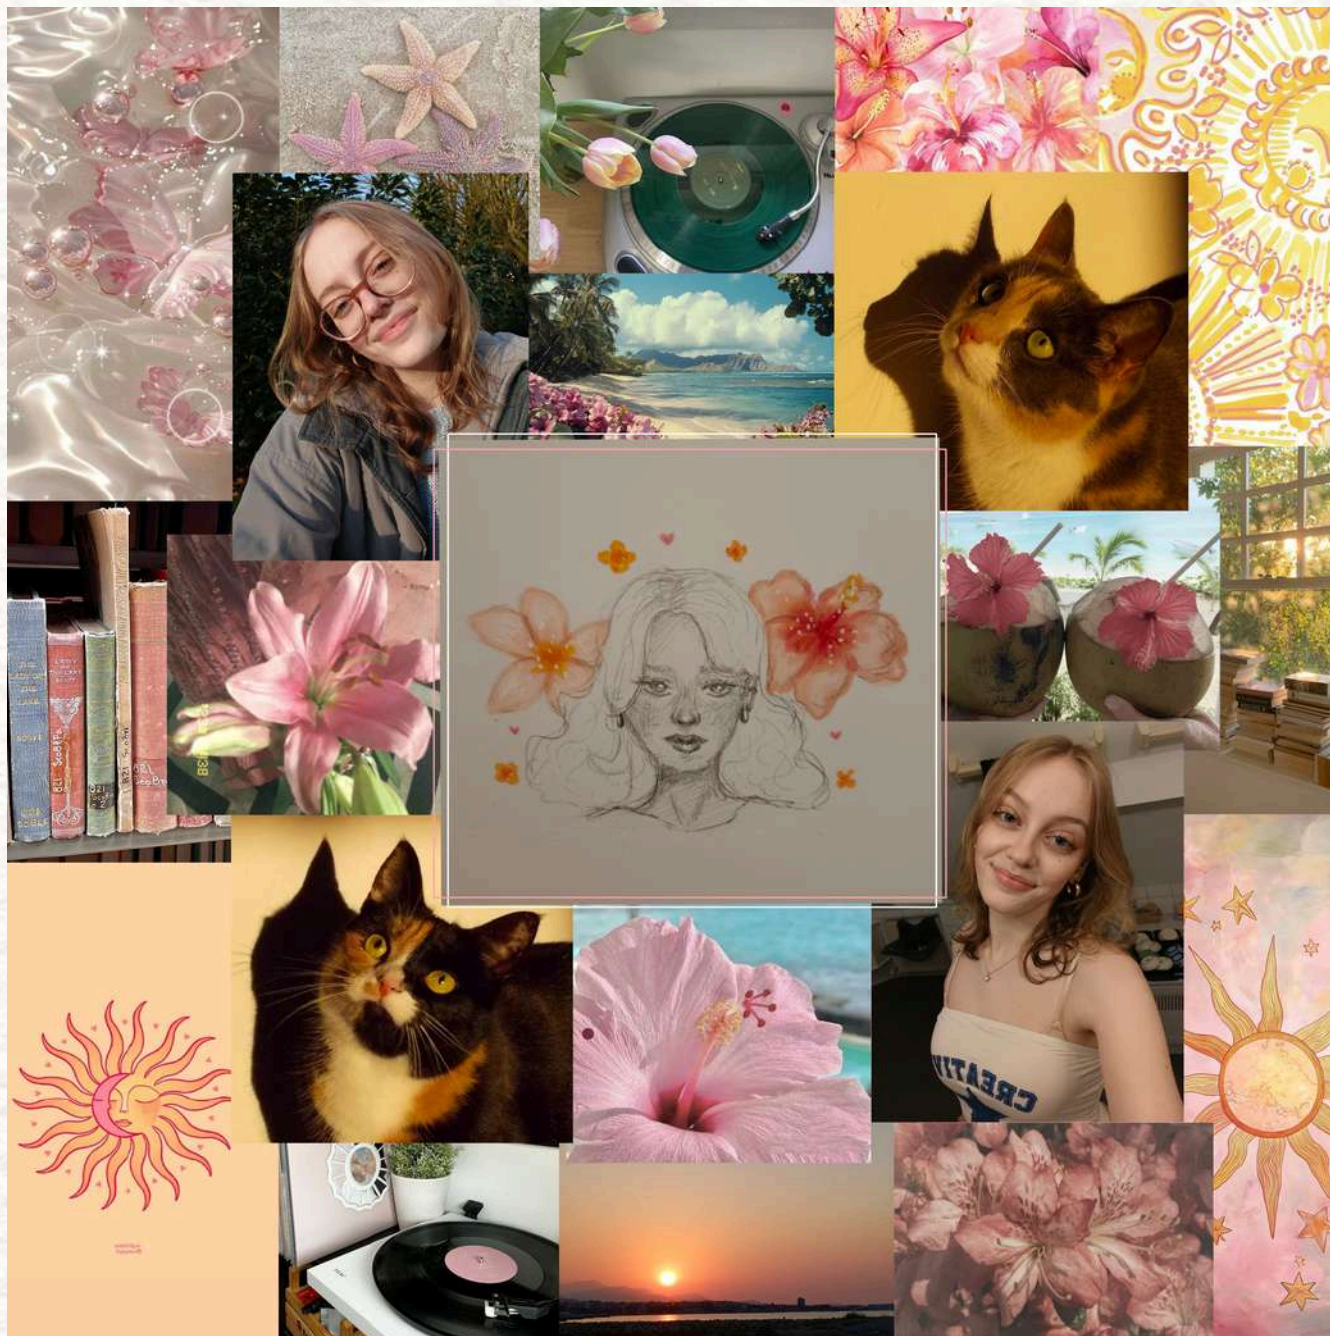

6.

Help out in the community
